

Academic Offer description template for EMP-AIM Project:

Institution:	MYKOLAS ROMERIS UNIVERSITY
EU subject code:	14.3
Type of Mobility:	Bachelor for Degree
Name of degree/program:	Financial Economics (bachelor of economics)
University subject:	Economics
Language:	English
Explanatory text (short description of the programme):	Financial Economics: the financial economics study programme is designed to prepare specialists in financial economics with an analytical mindset who are able to professionally and systemically apply financial analysis and management methods in an ever changing global environment, seeking financial stability, growth of the economy and effectiveness. A person, having completed the Financial Economics study programme and acquired a Bachelor's degree in Economics has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to be able to solve practical tasks and problems in the financial management area and foresee methods of solution; • to be able to effectively manage new financial instruments; • to be able to start one's own business in the financial services' sector or work in operating financial brokerage firms, economic institutions, banks, ministries, municipal institutions, investment management firms that manage investment and pension funds; • to be able to work in consulting companies, in the departments of share capital firms responsible for raising capital or work with investors; • to be able to understand concrete theoretical and practical problems of financial institutions and non-financial corporations and generally the financial market, foresee methods of solution; • to be able to work and effectively use the opportunities presented by the international finance market; • to be able to apply national and international financial and customs' legal acts in one's work and actively seek business information; • to be able to apply statistical methods and statistical programme systems in economics and finance; • to know the place and specifics of today's contemporary financial market integrating into a global economy and especially, into the European financial system; • to be able to know how to work responsibly, thoroughly, independently and quickly and to so organize one's work so as to be able to effectively collaborate with colleagues and clients alike.
Duration (months):	34 months (under special individual study plan for Erasmus Mundus student)
Earliest start date:	01/09/2012
Latest end date:	30/06/2015
Language Requirements:	Students should have a good command of both written and spoken English (B2 level under Common European Framework; 5.0-5.5 under IELTS band; 87-109 under TOEFL iBT).
Academic	Admission to the Financial Economics studies requires at least secondary or

Requirements:	equivalent education certificate.
Mechanism of recognition and transfer used by the University:	According to ECTS standards
Fees:	Tuition fee 1680 eur/year, Application fee 100 eur, Temporary residence permit fee 115 eur/year. All fees for Erasmus Mundus scholarship holder shall be paid directly from the project budget.
Contact name:	Vice-dean dr. Irmantas Rotomskis
Contact e-mail:	irotom@mruni.eu ;
Website:	http://www.mruni.eu/en/prospective_students/degree_programmes/
Additional information:	Information about accommodation, visas, practical information provided on http://www.mruni.eu/en/prospective_students/