

Faculty of Law

- Public Administration

Courses:

Introduction to Law
Informational Technologies of Communication
History of Public Administration
Micro – Macroeconomics
Fundamentals of political science
Foreign Language
Fundamentals of Bookkeeping
Labour Protection
Physical Training
Constitutional Law and Political Institutions
Civil Law
Public Relations and Communication
Family Law and Civil Status
Administrative Law I
Science of Administration
Sociology
Physical Training
Elements of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure
Public Policies and Social Policies
Community Institutional Law
Fiscal and Financial Law
Public Finance
Administrative Law II
Labour Law and Social Assistance

Physical Training
Administrative Act Control
Ethics and Professional Deontology
Elements of Civil Procedure and Administrative Court
Administrative systems in the Community
Juridical Protection of Human Rights
Right Contravention
Physical Training
Training
Course Paper
Public Service Management
Governmental Financial Policies
E-service systems in public administration
Elements of Economic – Financial Analysis in Public Sector
Public Internal Audit
Office Automation, Correspondence and Secretariat Techniques
Treasury Operations Mechanisms in Public Administration
Environmental Law
Local and Public Administration
Management of Public Acquisition
Local and Public Administration
Archive and Documentation

- Criminology and Criminal Sciences (Master)

Courses:

Penal Procedural Law (advanced study)
Research Methodology in the legal field
Decision theory in jurisprudence and legal professional ethics
Criminology
Penal Law (advanced study)
Criminalistics. Techniques and Modern Methods of Criminal Investigation
Penal Policy
Institutions of European Criminal Law
Business Comparative Criminal Law
Penology and Penitentiary Science
Specialization Training